Mr. Brown called up the bill repealing the second section of the act of 1838, relative to the Rutland and Whitehall Rail Road Co-being the section reserving power to future legislatures to amend or repeal the charter. Mr. Partridge opposed the bill, as also did Mr. Dillingham, on the ground that it was a departure from a general principle, well established by previous legislatures, with reference to all acts of incorporation. Messrs. Hodges and Fullam supported the bill, for the reasons that the section, which was proposed to be repealed, so far deterred capitalists from taking stock as to render the act of incorporation entirely useless; and that in this nstance, no possible injury could arise either to individuals or to the state by exempting the company from the operation of this section. Your Excellency's most obedient servant,

CHARLES DAVIS. SCHOOL FUND.

To His Excellency, Silas H. Jennison, Govenor of the State of Vermont. Sir : By an Act passed Nov. 17th, 1825, for the benefit of Common Schools, creating a school fund and making the Treasurer commissioner thereof, the Auditor in the Treasury Department is directed to audit the doings of the Treasurer in this behalf, and make annual report of all matters appertaining thereto, and especially the amount of increase and securities of said school fund. In compliance with the provisions of said Act, the Auditor has examined the loings of the Treasurer in that behalf, and reports the following to be a correct statement thereof on this 30th day of Sept. 1839.

The school fund is wholly vested in loans to individuals and cash loaned to the State, the former in the form of notes to the Commissioner, in part secured by mortgage on real estate, and in part by cosigners, and so far as the Auditor is informed, or can judge, the securities are satisfactory and the notes considered good.

The amount thus loaned to individuals, was in Sept. 1838. $41,884 45; of this sum there has been paid within the time since my Report of the 20th day of September, 1838, the sum of $1,750 05 of the principal, leaving the amount now on loan to individuals, exclusive of interest, $43,134 40.

The amount on Loan to the State was on the 20th of September, 1838, exclusive of interest due from the State, $64,020 43, to this is to be added the sum $935,98 cash received by A. Wardner, late Treasurer, between the 20th of September and the 12th of October, 1838, applicable to this fund, as appears by my additional Report, made on the last ments day; and the sum of $11,557 40 received by the Treasurer applicable to said fund since the said 12th of Oct. last, as appears by my Report in the Treas ury Department of this date, making together $12, 493 38, thus making altogether the sum of $76,513, 81, now on loan to the State, exclusive of interest. RUTLAND, VT. TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 29, 1839.

TRIBUTE TO JUDGE BUEL

Our readers will bear in mind that the death of the worthy fellow citizen was noticed somewhat at lesgth in our last, and we now copy from the Albany Evening Journal, with pleasure, some just marks of respect towards him. We are inclined to notice more particularly the demise of this worthy cotemporary from the circumstance if we are not mistaken, that he was a native of this town, the son of Maj. Buel, who resided here for many versus as early day, much esteemed and respected, and the we believe resided with his now deceared son at Alway, where he died some years since-and from another incident cal culated still more strongly to excite our notice and sympa thy. We were office mates together in this place, some years ago for some time, in our beyond, and the strong early attachment then formed, time has not obliterated.

THE LATE JESSE BUEL .- At a meeting of the Printers and Editors of the city of Albany, on the 9th inst., to consider what should be done in respecto the memory of their departed and justly lamented brother, the late Jesse Buel, Solomon Southwist was called to preside as Chairman, and Edwin Croswell was appointed Secretary. A committee of five was appointed by the Chair to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting—which committee subsequently reported the following:

Resolved, That the members of this meeting have heard with unfeigned regret, as well as due resigna tion to the Divine Will, of the sudden and unexpec-ted death of JESSE BUEL, while absent from his family in this city, and on a tour of public duty and usefulness in a neighboring sister state.

Resolved. That to pay just respect to the memory of departed worth, is a duty which all mankind ow to the laws of humanity and civilization, and the on nity of human nature.

Resolved, That few cases, if any, could call more loudly or solemnly upon society to perform this acknowledged duty, than the one which now present itself, in the death of a fellow-citizen whose talen rendered him an ornament to the printing and edit rial professions, who was admired by all who kno him for his exemplary virtues as a man and a citizen and was eminently and justly distinguished for la usefulness in the paths of legislation and agriculta ral science. Resolved. That we have long recognized in the character of our beloved brother, the true patrioted

Resolved, That the members of this Board, in the timony of the high respect which they entertain the memory of their deceased associate-for his rightness of character, the purity of his life, and busefulness as a citizen in the various pursuits which he has been engaged-will attend his firm this afternoon, and wear the usual badge of moutfor thirty days.

The Grand Jury of the city and county of Allin having heard of the death of Mr. Buel, re-"That in common with the rest of our fellow-cm we deplore an event which has deprived as who, in all the relations of life, has discharge duty with honor to himself and benefit to the com nity; and that, as farmers, we more especially re his death, as thereby the agricultural interest in lost one of its warmest, most zealous, and effect friends."-Boston Courser.

In another column will be found the report of its bank committee, composed of a resjority of localist It is avowedly a political paper; and on this ground as our other duties permit, we should be glad to reves to For the present we have to say, that the committee ! effectually put the scal of hypocrisy upon the count the locos for ten years past: in other words, the ametiment of Nathan Smille, introduced in 1-25, and comued from that time to the last session, as the darked " of tocofocoism, is not even deemed worthy the " of the honorable committee ! No; - having the rest sibility once thrown upon them; knowing the Whigs, (and yet the committee has seen fit to size them by wholesale in the report.) are ready to adopted measures of reform, not absolutely destructive, sile might be presented; the committee dare not stake the reputation as legislators open the naked, uncerand ill concacted proposition of Mr. Smille, to make a the private property of stockholders liable for the most tion of the bills of the bank.
